

Vedic Yajna

Yajna is a Vedic ritual, performed to appease the God. Yajna is a very useful in making the life more progressive. It also improves the quality of life. It is performed to invoke gods and favors to express joy and seek their blessings and smooth the progress of important achievements in life. Yajna is performed by Vedic pandits (Priests) intending to work with karmas in the horoscope.

Yajnas have no side effects rather they help in getting rid of impurities in the surroundings and purifying the atmosphere and diffuses negative energies. Devotee's name, his/her problems/knowledge is required for performing Yajna. Devotees can convey their righteous desires to the priest and Vedic scholars who pass the problem to the Almighty through the chanting of Mantras related to problems. The Yajnas are performed on behalf of the devotees. Devotees could become benefited, resulting in prosperous, contented and joyful life. Yajnas have no side effects rather they help in getting rid of impurities in the surroundings and purifying the atmosphere and diffuses negative energies. Yajnas are performed to achieve positive results.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Yajna?

Yajna is chanting of specific Vedic Mantras sound) by trained and dedicated Vedic pandits. The pandits may make offerings of flowers, ghee, camphor and other things, depending on the type of yajna.

Are there any other names for Yajnas ?

Yajna are also called yagya. Yagya is a north Indian term while Yajna is a south Indian word.

What are the duration of the Yajna?

A planetary Yajna may be performed at two levels. At "A" level ,the mantras repeated 140,000 times and "B" level the mantras are repeated 51,000 times., One pandit can, at the most, repeat the planetary mantras 11,000 times each day.

Our pandits usually repeat a planetary mantras 3500 times in a day.

How many times and when do we need to the planetary Yajna?

We can perform Yajna whenever we need them . When a graph (planet) change its position in the zodiac ,i.e. when it moves from one sign to another is a perfect time to perform a Yajna. When a new planetary period is entered is also a good time to do a yagya. Sometimes a planet is in a difficult place in the planet chart. These planets are usually offered a yagya twice a year, about 6 month apart .

When will i get an answer to my E-mail?

I answer e-mail in morning and evening, If you have not received any answer with in 36 hours, please resend your e-mail to me.

How do I request a Yajna?

Send your deposit of $251 to us through our Account, Demand Draft and Cheques. After Payments clarification will look at your chart and recommend a Yajna according to your need..

How is a Havan performed ?

A JAP is performed by the pandits for 125,000 times . This JAP consist of the chanting of mantras on the count of 108 beads of a necklace. This JAP is followed by a HAVAN which is performed for 10% as a JAP , Havan is followed by a Tarpan being performed for 1250 times which is the dashans of Havan. Tarpan is the process of offering JAL to the planets. Then Margin is performed for 125 times which is the dashans of Tarpan. Margin is the processing which the effect of the mantras are entered into the body and life of the Yajna (clients).

What if I know what Yajna I want?

We still need your birth information for making a chart. Then Pandits who chants your yagya will use the chart to connect with you. In the puja that begins the yagya each day the pandit ji mention your name, rising sign, nakshatra, and the current ocher (current transiting planetary position).

As the recommended date is January 1 to do the Yajna, when must I confirm this with payment? Can it be 24 hours before January 1 ?

I prefer to give them 48 hours notice. We get a lot of request for last minute yajnas. Sometimes the pandits are able to accommodate these results, other times, a different auspicious start time must be determined.